Brian Markovitz is a tenacious litigator, nationally recognized as a leading practitioner who represents whistleblowers in violations of the federal False Claims Act. His clients span numerous industries – construction, health care, pharmaceuticals, plus many more.

Brian has a unique ability to hold companies and individuals accountable for engaging in massive fraudulent schemes and retaliating against clients who have the courage to blow the whistle.

Brian also represents individuals throughout Maryland, the Washington DC area and across the country in complex employment litigation and appellate matters involving wrongful termination, wage & hour claims, and employer retaliation in response to reporting fraud or misconduct and discrimination on the basis of race, gender, age and sexual orientation.
