

Whistleblower/Qui Tam

It takes courage to blow the whistle on corruption, particularly when your employer is the wrongdoer.

Our FCA lawyers focus on uncovering and prosecuting fraud, while using FCA and employment law experience to zealously protect every whistleblower from retaliation-related harm. JGL has recovered hundreds of millions of dollars for the government in settlements brought by whistleblowers who refuse to remain silent in the face of fraud.

Our whistleblower (“qui tam”) lawyers bring decades of experience to litigating the federal False Claims Act and associated state claims. With offices in the Washington DC Metropolitan Area, JGL’s seasoned qui tam lawyers practice nationwide, from Massachusetts to Florida, and from Tennessee and Indiana, to Texas and California, and more.

Every person who stands up to report fraud or other wrongdoing plays a critical role in protecting public services and funds. Government services, contracts and funds are far too often rerouted to unscrupulous individuals and companies, instead of reaching the intended public recipients. With the help of knowledgeable whistleblowers, our mission is to combat corporate fraud to return access, safety, integrity and compliance to fraudulent practices. The types of qui tam cases we handle vary as much as the fraud out there, but include significant experience in all types of healthcare fraud, in addition to Department of Defense, grant, higher education, small business 8(a) and procurement fraud, to name a few.
